Mrs. Claude Howard - - - - - Executive Secretary

MRS. PAUL F. YERGENS

The President's Message

Fellow members of the Fort Wayne Woman's Club, greetings:

This is a privilege and an honor to have the opportunity to address this message to each and everyone of you. It is my hope that I will have the pleasure of meeting and speaking to each of you sometime during the next two years.

As I try to look forward two years from now, there is a great wondering in my mind as to the many events that will transpire in these coming days. There will be many joys and some sorrows. As concerns the Fort Wayne Woman's Club, we will share them together.

I know that there will be many hours of sincere effort spent in doing the work that is necessary to maintain all of the fine traditions of this organization. These hours will be shared by all of you, not just a few. It is my hope that each and every member will be asked and will accept some assignment during the next two years. We all know that we cannot receive more than we are willing to give to any organization and we also know that we will benefit in the same measure as we are willing to contribute of our own endeavors.

The objects of this Club are: To form an organized center for the educational, philanthropic, and social development of its members, and the civic betterment of Fort Wayne. These are lofty ideals. To attain and maintain them means devoted attention on the part of each one of us. They have come to us over the years unspoiled and it is my intention that they will be passed on in the same manner to those who follow.

I would like you to attend as many of our meetings as possible where you will meet your fellow clubwomen. You will always find a warm welcome awaiting you.

Sincerely,

VIRGINIA YERGENS

Collect for Club Women

(all standing)

Keep us, O God, from pettiness; let us be large in thought, in word, in deed.

Let us be done with fault finding and leave off self-seeking.

May we put away all pretense and meet each other face to face without self-pity, and without prejudice.

May we never be hasty in judgment and always generous.

Let us take time for all things; and make us grow calm, serene and gentle.

Teach us to put into action our better impulses, straightforward and unafraid.

Grant that we may realize it is the little things that create differences; that in the big things of life we are at one.

And may we strive to touch and to know the great common human heart of us all. And, O Lord God, let us forget not to be kind.

—MARY STEWART.

Who's Who On Our Program

JOHN BROWNLEE

Best known for his successes in leading baritone roles with the Metropolitan Opera and for his triumphant opera and concert appearances throughout the United States, Europe, and South America, John Brownlee is no stranger to the lighter side of the footlights.

Now in kilt and tam-o'-shanter, he uses his unique vocal and dramatic gifts to transport audiences to the bonnie braes of a Scotland that has long been the source of romantic legend in song and story.

Of Scottish ancestry himself, John Brownlee has a natural fondness for things Scottish. Genial and lively in temperament, possessing distinguished good looks and a magnificent voice, he continues to win plaudits at the Met, where he made his debut 20 years ago.

When he was 21, John Brownlee sang "The Messiah" at Town Hall in his native Melbourne, Australia. The great Nellie Melba was in the audience and was so impressed with his talent she came back stage. Some years later, after studies in Paris, her young protegee was singing Marcello to Dame Nellie's Mimi in her farewell performance of "La Boheme" at Covent Garden, London.

WILLIAM HARTIGAN

William Hartigan has recently returned from the Antarctic with the only available complete motion picture record of "Operation Deepfreeze," this country's part in the first major phases of the International Geophysical Year.

Mr. Hartigan's lectures and films cover every phase of Operation Deepfreeze I and II, which established bases and set up supply depots for IGY. He reports on perilous flights from New Zealand to Antarctica, ice strip landings, exploration for sites, building a 632 mile trail over ice, snow and crevasses deep into the interior, and of the struggle to survive through sub-zero weather, blizzards and numerous unseen hazards of the Antarctic. He narrowly escaped death four times and flew over the South Pole seven times.

JOHN MADIGAN

John Madigan, assistant managing editor and national editor of The Chicago American, has covered the Chicago, Midwest and National scene for 20 years. As a regular panelist on CBS-TV's "Face the Nation," and in earlier years as a panelist on "Meet the Press," "Press Conference," and "Reporters Round-up," he has interviewed scores of national and world figures.

Mr. Madigan is recognized in the newspaper field, government and public affairs as an accurate reporter and analyst of international and domestic events. In many years in Washington, he specialized in politics, legislation, and labor.

ALAN VILLIERS

His personal record—all color 16mm motion picture koda-chrome film is of the planning, construction, sailing and terrific reception of the famous Mayflower II which he sailed with a British crew from Plymouth, England to the famed Plymouth Rock in New England as a good will gift from people to people.

Alan Villiers is more than an outstanding lecturer, writer, television star and photographer. Much of his life has been spent in sailing ships. His hobby is nautical research. Born at Melbourne, Australia, he went to sea at 15, began writing at 20 and lectured first at 25. He has written a dozen books of the sea and ships. He is a trustee of the National Maritime Museum, vice-president of the Society of Nautical Research, member of the famed Chicago Adventurer's Club and the exclusive Circumnavigators' of New York.

DR. MURRAY BANKS

Dr. Murray Banks was formerly professor of psychology at Long Island University, and at Pace College in New York City, where he was head of the Psychology Department for over five years. He has also been a visiting professor and special lecturer on various subjects at the University of North Carolina, University of Pittsburg, and Brooklyn College.

Dr. Banks is a graduate of New York and Columbia Universities. He is the author of the best sellers 'How To Live With Yourself,' 'What To Do Until The Psychiatrist Comes,' 'How To Stay Normal And Enjoy Life,' and 'How To Overcome An Inferiority Complex.'

ALEX ALEXANDER

Alex Alexander is a graduate of Mississippi College. He holds the MA Degree in Horticulture from Purdue University. He studied Oriental Flower Design in Japan at the Misho Ryu School for three seasons. He is noted as a lecturer before florist conventions and garden clubs in the Middle West, West, South, and East. He is a master of modern creative designs with fresh as well as dried material.

ELIZABETH DUNN

A quick glance at Mrs. Dunn's career reveals the circuitous route by which she arrived at her current status of book critic and social commentator. A graduate of Vassar College, she dipped a tentative toe in the theatre, paused for a while at The New Yorker magazine and settled in the world of high fashion as New York stylist for a chain of stores. All the time she was feverishly turning out stories, most of which found their way into national magazines.

Joining Vogue, she rose to be personal assistant to its editor, Mrs. Woolman Chase, and then moved over to House Beautiful as associate editor before resigning to devote her time more fully to creative writing.

Her "Candy and Bill" stories about a young married couple are as durable as their creator's imagination is fertile, which is another way of saying they'll be read for a long time.

W. LOCKWOOD MARTLING JR.

W. Lockwood Martling, Jr. holds a Bachelor of Science degree in architecture from the University of Illinois. He studied further at the Art Institute and the American Academy of Art. He is a member of the American Institute of Architects, member of Board of Directors of Oak Park-River Forest Art League, an active member of the Chicago Color Camera Club, and the Photographic Society of America.

Feature articles which have appeared in Better Homes and Gardens, Builders Magazine, Architectural Forum, Chicago Tribune, Daily News, Oak Leaves, Real Estate Magazine, and many other publications, have given Mr. Martling an enviable reputation in the field of architecture.

His widely acclaimed lectures on varied subjects are profusely illustrated with kodachrome slides photographed by the speaker himself.

ADALBERT RAPHAEL KRETZMANN

Adalbert Raphael Kretzmann holds the B.D. degree from Concordia College at Bronxville, New York, and the Litt. D. degree (honorary) from the Concordia Seminary, St. Louis. He has served as pastor, professor of German, liturgical consultant in architecture and stained glass, and has lectured on church art and liturgy. Dr. Caldwell holds an A.B. from Hiram (Ohio) College, an A.M. and Ph.D. from U.S.C. He has been summer professor at M.I.T. and the University of Michigan.

Dr. Caldwell has lectured throughout the United States and is a frequent member of radio and television panels. On his travels abroad he makes a special point of visiting places that have significance in the history of human freedom.

EARL BRINK

Earl Brink is an American business man who for 16 years has turned professionally to travel and photography. He has made some of the best ocean surf shots ever photographed.

The big success of any travel film rests in whether the film and its narrator see eye to eye, as an unity. In this case, they do in elegantly lazy terms, which, at times, broaches the scholarly. It's just as you would imagine Tahiti (and the Islands Under the Wind) to be, if not hoped.

RHODA DOLIN

Rhoda Dolin, trained as a dancer, turned to it again in battling partial paralysis. She discovered it not only had a therapeutic value but emotional value as well. From this came her realization that glamour can be attained by any person who only seeks to realize it. Rhoda Dolin speaks with artistry, authority and from experience. More than that, she proves her point by being the height of glamour itself.

Gordon Lange is an articulate, informed teacher-businessman. His course at Temple University on Creative Thinking has attracted "students" from all fields of industry and the arts.

Mr. Lange whose interest in Friendly Persuasion has centered chiefly in furthering the unique work of the Quaker Work Camps, has kept him a busy member of the Society of Friends for the past 25 years. The work camp idea has been shared with all other denominations and has been adopted around the world as a way of putting ethical beliefs into action.

With a fine background in the theatre, Gordon Lange taught dramatics and headed a professional theatre project on the west coast. He knows how to keep an audience alive and warm to his chosen subject.

OSWALD C. J. HOFFMANN

Dr. Oswald C. J. Hoffmann received the M.A. degree from the University of Minnesota, an honorary degree of Doctor of Laws from Valparaiso University, Valparaiso, Indiana, and Doctor of Divinity from Concordia Seminary, St. Louis, Mo., honorary.

Dr. Hoffman was an instructor at University of Minnesota and Professor of Greek and Latin at Collegiate Institute, Bronxville, N. Y.

ARTHUR C. CLARK

Using as a launching platform a thorough grounding in astronomy, physics, mathematics, and related sciences, Arthur C. Clark (with a sense of humor as bright as the stars he studies) rocketed across the literary firmament in 1952 with his "The Exploration of Space," a Book-of-the-Month-Club best seller.

His prodigious literary output since — 20 books so far — has sold over a million copies in a dozen languages. He has contributed more than a hundred articles to such magazines as Holiday, Readers Digest, New York Times, Saturday Review, This Week, Harpers, as well as numerous scientific papers to technical journals.

MURIEL MONSELL

Muriel Monsell received her first college degree at the age of 16. She is a graduate of the Ward-Belmont School, the University of Oklahoma and the Pasadena Playhouse, Post Graduate School, Pasadena, California. She has appeared professionally in Radio, Television, Theatre and Films in New York, Chicago, Hollywood, and Europe.

Not content to be an "armchair reviewer," Miss Monsell travels all about for first hand observations, experiences, and interviews in order to prepare her lectures and articles.

DR. EUGENE R. BERTERMANN

Dr. Bertermann was graduated from Washington University with the Master of Arts Degree, Doctor of Philosophy Degree, and was elected to Phi Beta Kappe Honorary Fraternity.

In the fall of 1949 he flew to Germany in the interests of the radio mission. In September he flew to the Orient to establish Lutheran Hour broadcasting in Japan and Hong Kong; and in February, 1952, he inspected Lutheran Hour Broadcasting operations in Central and South America. Again in 1953 he traveled to Australia and the Far East, in the interest of radio work. In the summer of 1957, Dr. Bertermann traveled through Africa, the Middle East, the Iron Curtain Countries and Europe in the interest of radio mission.

Dr. Bertermann serves also as chairman of the Television Productions Committee, in charge of "This Is The Life."

ALFRED WOLFF

World traveler, Alfred Wolff started his travels when he was three years old. He has crossed the Atlantic many times by ship and by air. He averages 50,000 miles per year in the production and presentation of his travelogues, and to accommodate the steady demand for personal appearances with his delightful color films. He appears regularly for the outstanding travel and adventure courses, town halls, schools, clubs, and societies through out the United States and Canada. He is an observant and faithful film reporter.

He was an advanced flight instructor in Naval aviation during World War I, and later an executive of a pioneer airline. He also produces educational films.

JAN LINDERMANN

Jan Lindermann has all the attributes necessary for a successful presentation of his theme — distinguished appearance, a fine voice, beautiful diction and an independent approach. His opinions of theatre values are often at variance with those of the professional critics, but his independent evaluations have won him the applause of his many club audiences.

His keen analysis of the current plays brings Broadway to you, familiarizes you with what is going on in the world of the theatre today, and helps you to decide what you must see and what you can pass by as not to your taste.

"A Scientist who can speak!" That is the remark most frequently heard when audiences hear Dr. Schubert lecture.

In this day of earth satellites, atomic energy and the threat of Soviet aggression, it is vitally important that our scientists speak out. Dr. Schubert speaks forcefully, with refreshing candor and objectivity, spicing his talks with a keen sense of humor. He manages to achieve the difficult balance point between the too-technical and the too-simple discussion.

A graduate of the University of Chicago where he earned a doctorate in physical chemistry, Dr. Schubert's research activities and accomplishments range from physical chemistry to biology and medicine. He is world famous among scientists for his discoveries on treatments against poisoning by radioactive materials. He has been associated with the Manhattan atomic project from its beginnings in 1942, both in Chicago and Oak Ridge. At present he is a senior scientist with the Argonne National Laboratory.

DR. LELAND MILES

Leland Miles is one of those rare combinations — a humorist and a philosopher. He has the gift of being able to discuss a profound subject, yet keep his audience highly amused.

After receiving his Ph.D. from the University of North Carolina, he embarked on a provocative series of speeches and articles which aroused editorial comment nationally and are now incorporated in his book of essays, "Americans Are People."

Though best known as an essayist and speaker of unusual freshness, wit, and clarity, he is also a published poet and textbook author, camp director, Eagle Scout, lay preacher, and director of forums for the Council on Student Travel in Europe.

Dr. Miles is English Department chairman at Hanover College.

WILLIAM LEONARD

William Leonard is a veteran of a thousand first nights. He is a member of Sigma Delta Chi, honorary journalism fraternity. His trenchant typewriter has turned out reviews, news stories, and features about all branches of show business for a variety of publications, ranging from the Wall Street Journal to a number of other publications.

Now a feature and entertainment writer for The Chicago Tribune, and a drama critic for The Christian Science Monitor, Mr. Leonard chronicles with enthusiasm, but candidly, the fascinating world of amusements from backstage and out front — and brings his opinions, alive and stimulating, to the speakers stand.

He won the Page One award in 1950 for his series of articles attacking the status of theatrical censorship in Chicago. He wrote and edited the Chicago Stagebill history of the theatre and is considered the definitive authority on the modern stage in the Loop.

GAYLE HASTINGS

Miss Gayle Hastings of London is an internationally known fashion designer. After studying design in Paris, Miss Hastings journeyed to Vienna to continue her studies. There she experienced a narrow escape from the Nazis at the outbreak of the war. Recently in New York her fashion creations attracted the attention of the head of one of Hollywood's large movie studios, and she was shortly thereafter made their chief designer.

AMERICAN HOME DEPARTMENT

On Tuesday, November 12, we entertained members and guests at a Cordial Hour from 11:30 A.M. to 12:30 P.M. The Annual Harvest Luncheon followed. Cards were played in the afternoon.

The American Home Department was responsible for the decorations for the Christmas Luncheon, December 5.

Margaret Ruth Adams was the guest speaker for our Sponsored Day, January 23. Her original monologues were enjoyed by 351 members and guests. A card party followed the luncheon.

The Eventide Party was held on February 8. The theme for the event was "Valentine Hop." The party included a carry-in supper, round and square dancing, and cards.

Our annual meeting was held March 18, with our President, Mrs. Hunter, as our special guest. Music was provided by the Franklin Mother Singers. Group singing and contests were enjoyed after the business meeting.

We assisted with all General Club projects. We sent $75.00 to the Allen County League for the Blind and sold articles made by the blind, for the amount of $227.00.

Eight new members were enrolled during the year.

ALICE NULF, Chairman

BOOK AND TRAVEL DEPARTMENT

Our opening meeting was November 5. Luncheon was served at 1 P.M., followed by a travel talk, "A North Cape Cruise," given by one of our department members, Mrs. Harry Hogan.

The Book and Travel Department collaborated with the other departments for the Christmas Luncheon, December 5. Mrs. Harry W. Salon, of this department, served as general chairman.

On January 16, we entertained members and guests at a social tea at 2 P.M. in the club lounge. Mrs. Haskell Schultz gave an interesting and excellent book review.

Our annual meeting was February 25 at noon, at which time we had our carry-in luncheon. Our President, Mrs. Hamilton Hunter, past presidents and department chairmen were our special guests. Reports of the year's activities were read. We were entertained with a travelogue in color, "The Great Land—Alaska."

On our sponsored day, April 17, Dr. Leland Miles presented "Behind the Book Jackets," for the 10:30 A.M. club program. In the afternoon, club members and their guests were entertained at cards.

For our philanthropy this year, we presented the Fort Wayne State School with a typewriter for its Recreation Department office and also six wooden map puzzles.

Three new members were enrolled during the year.

We assisted with all of the General Club projects.

EDITH WATERFIELD, Chairman

RECORDING SECRETARY

The business of the Fort Wayne Woman's Club during this, its thirty-third year, was carried on in eight regular and three called meetings of the Board of Directors, and two regular and three called meetings of the Board of Trustees. Mrs. Hamilton Hunter, the Club's devoted and efficient President, led the Board of thirty-five faithful members in its efforts to guard and promote the interests of the organization.

Among many decisions of far-reaching effect were the following: 1) The increase in dues made possible a more generous and equitable allowance to each department for its social, cultural, and philanthropic activities; and 2) The long-time dream of our Founder, Mrs. John E. Moring, is now a reality, a Memorial Endowment Fund having been established. Its provisions are stated in Article II, Section 6 of the By-Laws. The amount in the fund already totals $5,562.45, accumulated through three legacies, two gifts, and the proceeds of the Club projects in 1957 and 1958, the Theater Holidays.

Under the able leadership of Mrs. William Waterfield, the Trustees authorized needed repairs and improvements to the clubhouse. They also acted upon requests and recommendations from the Board. Elected as new officers were Mrs. Lee Carlson, Chairman, and Mrs. Nathan L. Salon, Secretary.

All officers and standing and special committees functioned with outstanding efficiency. Finances are in excellent condition, and the House has shown a gratifying profit. A great amount of publicity appeared in the local papers and in the Indianapolis News, through the efforts of the Publicity Chairman. The membership stands at 932.

During 1957-1958, 23 general Club programs were presented, including those at the Opening Reception, the Anniversary Luncheon, and the May Breakfast. The speakers and performers covered a wide variety of subjects, among them world affairs, peoples and places, the fine arts, and the art of living. Approximately six thousand members and two hundred eighty-two guests took advantage of these program offerings.

The departments held their special functions and parties, which, though traditional, were new and original in concept and execution. Classes were offered in bridge, legal facts for women, and parliamentary law, as well as two lectures for the Lenten season. The Fine Arts Department brought to the auditorium five art exhibits, including paintings from the Hoosier Salon.

The Club was proud to make its philanthropic contributions more generous than usual. Specific donations were $250 to the Needlework Guild, $50 to the Christmas Bureau, $35 to the United Fund, $10 to Christmas Seals, $25 to the Heart Fund, $10 to the Red Cross, $75 to each department for its contribution to Federation and other chosen philanthropic projects, $63 apiece to the Girl Scouts and the Young Women's Christian Association for camperships, and the same amount to the Fine Arts Foundation. Other material help and service were given to the Indians of the West, the Fort Wayne State School, the Allen County Home, the Christ-Child Festival, the Polo Booth, and the League for the Blind.

Co-operation was granted, when requested, to the Retarded Children's Association, the Better Business Bureau, the Chamber and Junior Chamber of Commerce, and other organizations. The Club participated in the meetings of the Social Planning Council of the United Chest and was a member of the Fort Wayne and Allen County Women's Council.

Whole-hearted co-operation was given the Federation of Women's Clubs in its extensive program. We entertained at the Annual Federation Breakfast, when Mrs. Hiram Cole Houghton was the speaker, and opened our doors for the Federation Bridge and the County Convention. Members attended the County, District, and State Conventions, and our President went to the General Convention at Asheville, N. C.

With deep sorrow, the members of the Club noted the death of a beloved past-president, Mrs. Walter Jones, and of 11 other valued members and friends.

In closing, your Secretary would like to commend the hundreds of women who worked so hard on committees. to say God-speed to a loyal, devoted group of retiring officers, and committee chairmen, and to wish for the incoming President and her Board a loyal membership, good judgment and courage in making decisions, and year of productive and pleasurable activity in the interests of the Club.
